

ДАЧА

DASH ARTS DACHA

THURSDAY 13TH - SUNDAY 16TH JULY / THE FARAWAY FOREST
THU 7PM-2AM / FRI-SUN 11.30AM- 2AM

THU 13 JULY The Popov Family Dacha in Vyritsa, south of Petrograd (Early 1917)

- 7-9pm EVENING GAMES: Join the Dacha Family in opening the Dacha for the weekend
9-9.30pm LIVE MUSIC: Sasha Ilyukevich and the Highly Skilled Migrants an incomparable brew of post-punk eclectic energy and folk lyricism
9.30pm-2am MUSIC: DJ Sasha's rocking tunes from across Russia and the Post Soviet States

FRI 14 JULY The Popov Family Dacha in Vyritsa, south of Petrograd (Spring 1917)

- 11.30am-1pm MORNING GAMES: Join the Dacha Family for their ritual of tea, snacks, games & conversation
1-1.30pm LIVE MUSIC: Mazaika Duo with their intoxicating blend of folk songs, jazz, tango & gypsy fiddle
2-4pm THEATRE: 10 Days That Shook The World - Part 1 an impromptu adaptation of John Reed's thrilling eyewitness account of the Revolution. Come and play a part as we make history every afternoon!
4-5pm AROUND THE KITCHEN TABLE: Conversation on a century of revolutions with writer and journalist Oliver Bullough
5-6pm AFTERNOON GAMES: Join the Dacha Family for an afternoon sip from the samovar
6.30-7.15pm LIVE MUSIC: Mazaika Duo a longer set from our friends (see 1-1.30pm)
7.45-9.15pm FILM: Nikita Mikhalkov's Unfinished Piece for the Player Piano (1977) based on a Chekhov play set in a late Tsarist Dacha (U)
9.30-10pm LIVE MUSIC: Sasha Ilyukevich and the Highly Skilled Migrants (see Thursday)
10pm-2am MUSIC: DJ Sasha's rocking tunes from across Russia and the Post Soviet States

SAT 15 JULY The Popov Family Dacha in Vyritsa, south of Petrograd (Summer, 1917)

- 11.30am-1pm MORNING GAMES: Join the Dacha Family for their ritual of tea, snacks, games & conversation
1-1.30pm LIVE MUSIC: Iryna Muha performs classic Russian ballads and love songs
2-4pm THEATRE: 10 Days That Shook The World - Part 2 (see Friday)
4-5pm AROUND THE KITCHEN TABLE: Conversation with Vladimir Ashurkov, Russian dissident and colleague of anti-corruption crusader Alexei Navalny
5-6pm AFTERNOON GAMES: Join the Dacha Family for an afternoon sip from the samovar
6.30-7.15pm LIVE MUSIC: Iryna Muha a second set from Iryna (see 1-1.30pm)
7.45-9.15pm FILM: Vsevolod Pudovkin's The End of St. Petersburg (1927) depicting the Russian peasants' struggle and their journey towards Revolution in 1917 (with recorded score, PG)
9.30-10pm LIVE MUSIC: Sasha Ilyukevich and the Highly Skilled Migrants (see Thursday)
10pm-2am MUSIC: DJ Sasha's rocking tunes from across Russia and the Post Soviet States

SUN 16 JULY The Popov Family Dacha in Vyritsa, south of Petrograd (Autumn, 1917)

- 11.30am-1pm MORNING GAMES: Join the Dacha Family for their ritual of tea, snacks, games & conversation
1-1.30pm LIVE MUSIC: A solo set from Belarusian punk-rocker Sasha Ilyukevich and troubadour with his poetic songs of love and rage
2-4pm THEATRE: 10 Days That Shook The World - Part 3 (see Friday)
4-5pm AROUND THE KITCHEN TABLE: Telling Stories of revolution today with the Dash Arts Team
5-6pm AFTERNOON GAMES: Join the Dacha Family for an afternoon sip from the samovar
6.30-7.15pm LIVE MUSIC: Sasha Ilyukevich and the Highly Skilled Migrants (see Thursday)
7.30-10pm FILM: Sergei Eisenstein's 1927 silent classic October (with recorded score) a cinematic re-creation of the 1917 events that led to the storming of the Winter Palace (PG)